WHEREAS, on or about December 8, 2010, this Court entered a Consent Preliminary Order of Forfeiture (the “Preliminary Order of Forfeiture”) (D.E. 171), which ordered the forfeiture to the United States of all right, title and interest of MICHAEL SILVERMAN (the “Defendant”) in, as relevant here, the following property:

- i. All United States currency, funds or other monetary instruments credited to account number 0056134117 in the name of the defendant, located at Sovereign Bank (the “Sovereign Account”); and
- ii. All United States currency, funds or other monetary instruments credited to account number 84110182 in the name of the defendant, located at Merrill Lynch (the “Merrill Lynch Account”, collectively with the Sovereign Account, the “Specific Property”);

WHEREAS, the Preliminary Order of Forfeiture directed the United States to publish, for at least thirty (30) consecutive days, notice of the Preliminary Order of Forfeiture, notice of the United States’ intent to dispose of the Specific Property, and the requirement that any person asserting a legal interest in the Specific Property must file a petition with the Court in accordance with the requirements of Title 21, United States Code, Sections 853(n)(2) and (3). The Preliminary Order of Forfeiture further stated that the United States could, to the extent practicable, provide direct written notice to any person known to have an alleged interest in the Specific Property as a substitute for published notice as to those persons so notified;

WHEREAS, the provisions of Title 21, United State Code, Section 853(n)(1), Rule 32.2(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, and Rules G(4)(a)(iv)(C) and G(5)(a)(ii) of the Supplemental Rules for Admiralty or Maritime Claims and Asset Forfeiture Actions, require publication of a notice of forfeiture and of the Government's intent to dispose of the Specific Property before the United States can have clear title to the Specific Property;

WHEREAS, the Notice of Forfeiture and the intent of the United States to dispose of the Specific Property was posted on an official government internet site (www.forfeiture.gov) beginning on March 18, 2011, for thirty (30) consecutive days, through April 16, 2011, pursuant to Rule G(4)(a)(iv)(C) of the Supplemental Rules for Admiralty and Maritime Claims and Asset Forfeiture Actions and proof of such publication was filed with the Clerk of the Court on October 4, 2022 (D.E. 340);

WHEREAS, thirty (30) days have expired since final publication of the Notice of Forfeiture and no petitions or claims to contest the forfeiture of the Specific Property have been filed;

WHEREAS, the Defendant is the only person and/or entity known by the Government to have a potential interest the Specific Property;

WHEREAS, on or about June 10, 2011, the Government seized $252,636 in United States currency from the Merrill Lynch Account (the "Merrill Lynch Funds");

WHEREAS, on or about July 7, 2016, the Government seized $23,940 in United States currency from the Sovereign Account (collectively with the Merrill Lynch Funds, "the Seized Funds"); and

WHEREAS, pursuant to Title 21, United States Code, Section 853(n)(7), the United States shall have clear title to any forfeited property if no petitions for a hearing to contest the forfeiture have been filed within thirty (30) days of final publication of notice of forfeiture as set forth in Title 21, United States Code, Section 853(n)(2);

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

1. All right, title and interest in the Seized Funds is hereby forfeited and vested in the United States of America, and shall be disposed of according to law.
2. Pursuant to Title 21, United States Code, Section 853(n)(7) the United States of America shall and is hereby deemed to have clear title to the Seized Funds.
3. The United States Marshals Service (or its designee) shall take possession of the Seized Funds and dispose of the same according to law, in accordance with Title 21, United States Code, Section 853(h).

Dated: New York, New York
October 5, 2022
